

Perinatal Mental Health and Its Impact on Parents, Children and Families

Monday, Oct. 5, 2020
8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

A Virtual Conference for:

Pediatricians, social workers, psychologists, OB/Gyns, nurse practitioners, nurses, child care providers, therapists, midwives, doulas and anyone working with parents and young children.

Topics Include:

- Defining Perinatal Mood and Anxiety Disorders –
Tiffany Ruffin, PsyD, Licensed Psychologist
- OCD in Perinatal Parents –
Shanda Curiel, PsyD, Licensed Psychologist
- Impact of Perinatal Mood and Anxiety Disorders on Infants –
Tiffany Willis, PsyD, Licensed Psychologist

Registration is free and can be completed at the link below:

<http://bit.ly/PerinatalConf2020>

CMEs are to be determined and will be offered through Truman Medical Center/University Health. Three continuing educational credits are provided by the Greater Kansas City Psychological Association.

This conference is co-sponsored by the Greater Kansas City Psychological Association. GKCPA is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Greater Kansas City Psychological Association maintains responsibility for this program and its content. gkcpa.org gkcpassoc@gmail.com

Virtual conference hosted by
Children's Mercy Kansas City,
Truman Medical Center/University
Health and the Pregnancy and Postpartum Resource Center

